What you need to know

Notice of Intent to Levy

This notice is your Notice of Intent to Levy (Internal Revenue Code Section 6331(d)). If we don't receive the amount due within 30 days from the date of this notice, we may serve a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy or a Federal Contractor Levy, as explained in the enclosed Publication 594, IRS Collection Process. In most other situations, before we levy on your property or rights to property, we'll send you a notice that gives you the opportunity to request a Collection Due Process hearing.

Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you and your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes contact other persons for information you haven't been able to provide, to verify information we've received, or to take collection action against your property held by third parties (through a levy or seizure). We intend to contact other persons such as a neighbor, a bank, an employer, or employees. When we contact other persons, we generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name.

The law prohibits us from disclosing more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. We intend to contact other persons during the period beginning December 25, 2026, and ending one year later, on December 26, 2027. You have the right to request a list of those contacted by calling or asking us during a personal interview.

If we file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL), it may make it more difficult for you to sell your property or borrow against it. Although a filed lien no longer appears on credit reports, it may still affect your ability to obtain credit if a potential lender discovers the lien through public records or other available sources.

Right to request an appeal

If you don't agree with our intent to levy or file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, you have the right to request an appeal under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) before the collection action takes place. Please call 833-678-7020 or send us a Collection Appeal Request (Form 9423).

Send us your documents using the Document Upload Tool within 30 days from the date of this notice. To use the tool, scan the QR Code to the right or visit IRS.gov/DUTReply and enter access code 595f6-474b8.

Denial or revocation of United States passport

The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue a new passport or renew an existing passport if you're certified as having seriously delinquent tax debt totaling more than the current threshold amount (adjusted yearly). For more information, including the threshold amount, visit IRS.gov/Passports or read Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process.

Additional information

- Visit IRS.gov/CP504B for more information about this notice.
- Review the enclosed IRS Collection Process (Publication 594) and Collection Appeal Rights (Publication 1660).
- Call 833-678-7020 if you can't find what you need online.

Interest (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we can't reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit IRS.gov/Interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.
